INFORMATION

COUNT ONE

False Declaration Before Grand Jury
(18 U.S.C. § 1623)

The United States Attorney charges:

On or about March 14, 2019, in Worcester, in the District of Massachusetts, the defendant,

LINDA LE,

while under oath in a proceeding before a Grand Jury of the United States, did knowingly make a false material declaration in that Le was asked the following questions and gave the following answers while knowing and believing those answers to be false:

Q: Do you know anything about a company named UT Services?

A: No.

Q: Have you played any role with UT Services?

A: No.

This testimony of Le was false in that, in late 2017 and early 2018, Le performed work for UT Services and became familiar with various business operations of UT Services.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1623.
